BIO

Yonatan Ron (b. Jerusalem, 1988) is a painter and printmaker. He works and lives in Tel Aviv.

Ron holds a BA and MFA from Bezalel Academy of Arts & Design, Jerusalem, and winner of the Young Artist Award from the Hecht Museum, Haifa.

In recent years, since graduating, he has been a member of the artists' community of The New Gallery in Teddy, Jerusalem, where he received a subsidized studio grant and founded the print workshops.

In 2019, he received a young artist's scholarship from the Jerusalem Municipality in cooperation with the print workshop run by Irena Gordon. Solo exhibitions include the Jerusalem Artists' House, Barbur Gallery, a double exhibition at The New Gallery at Teddy Stadium and an artist residence in Berlin at Martin Mertens Gallery.

Awards: the Struck Prize for Excellence in Printmaking; the Presser Prize for Excellence in Painting; a young artist scholarship at the Jerusalem Print Workshop; studio grant at the Teddy Artists Workshops.
